

30th Sunday in Ordinary Time October 29, 2017

"You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind."

— Matthew 22:37

POWER STRUGGLE

Power struggles occur on every level of society, from the world stage to relationships at work, to our own homes. We struggle for position in the hierarchy of power: Who has power over whom? How do they wield it? What is the source of that power? What is the healthy response?

In this Sunday's Gospel reading the Pharisees engage Jesus in a power struggle over whether Jews should show tribute to Caesar by paying taxes. Jesus' response puts this and every struggle for power into perspective. In harmony with the words of Isaiah and Paul, Jesus teaches us that God is the ultimate source of all power—the power of earthly rulers, the Pharisees, Jesus, the Church, and the power within ourselves.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

This week we have in All Souls' Day a commemoration that is linked to the Halloween customs. The big-spending sugar shock holiday is a long way removed from Thursday's grateful remembrance of the souls who are hidden from our sight, but alive to Christ. Old pagan superstitions might find us holding our breath when going by the graveyard, whereas others might actually go to the cemetery to tend the family graves, to share good food, and remember dear ones. Nowhere does a culture embrace this day as fully as in Mexico. The "Day of the Dead" is a national holiday that unfolds over three full days.

For three thousand years, the indigenous people of Mexico have been mocking death in an annual festival, and the invading Spaniards were shocked at the spectacle. To the Aztecs, life was a dream, and death was the entry into full life. Skulls were thus a symbol of joy and release from life's sorrows. The missionaries found all this a bit creepy, but they moved the three-day feast from August to synchronize it with the Christian calendar. So today, graves are decorated, altars are built in the home to honor the family dead, children feast on candy skulls, and people dress up in elaborate skeleton outfits. The devout spend hours in the cemetery, and there is a lively sense of the communion of saints, the living and the dead.

NO FOOLING

You may fool those who work above you;
you may fool those who work around you;
but you will rarely fool those who work under you.

Parish Kitchen and Hall Use

Our Hall Coordinator, Hal McGuirk, is in charge of scheduling all kitchen and hall requests. Please contact Hal at 874-3304 in advance to get necessary information about availability and regulations. Thank you.

As our hearts continue to go out to the countless families affected by the wildfires, we are encouraged by the powerful response from all people of goodwill. The Chancery reopened on Monday October 16th, but will not be fully staffed as some staff have left the area due to the evacuations. The only Chancery phone number working at present is the main number, 707-545-7610. Chancery staff do have email access but are not working. We have created a web page on our Diocesan website to donate specifically to help alleviate the incredible financial toll the fires have had on our school communities, and parish families. Please go to www.srdiocese.org/signofhope to make a donation as soon as possible. Every little bit helps! (You can also sign up to offer one hour of prayer before the Blessed Sacrament each week, as well as submit your own story of how you have experienced your own sign of hope in the midst of this trial.) Thank you! -Dave Adams, the Chancery

Santa Rosa Youth Rally: Middle school and high school students are invited to a youth rally on Thursday, Nov. 2nd, 6:30-8pm, at St. Eugene's Becker Center. Includes music, snacks, and a free will offering for the rebuilding of St. Rose School. Parents welcome to attend.

Jesus said to him, "You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind." Mt 22:37-39

This is the greatest and the first commandment. The second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself."

Rural Food Program Alert!!!

The devastating wild fires have displaced many people and it is evident that the rebuilding process will take many months. Family and friends of our Rural Food clients and individuals relocating to temporary housing in our service area will need support. In view of this, we are suspending the residency requirement for our service area (this includes communities from Occidental to Monte Rio, Cazadero, Jenner, Bodega Bay, Bodega, and Freestone.). I will inform Catholic Charities Rural Food and the Redwood Empire Foodbank so that they can refer people to our program. I encourage our parishioners and volunteers to refer individuals and families that may be in need of food. Of course, this will place additional need for volunteers in anticipation of more requests for assistance. November, December and January have always been our busiest months so please help us with set-up and/or distribution. Please be in communication with me (roddemar@comcast.net) and/or leave messages at the parish office (874-3812) if you have any questions or suggestions.

Thank you, Rod DeMartini, Program Coordinator

Catholic Charities is working with the St. Philip/St. Teresa Rural Food Program to help identify individuals in our service area who may benefit from Cal Fresh Disaster Relief funds. This Program provides funds for the purchase of groceries. Cal Fresh workers will be in our service area until the end of this month, assisted by several volunteers from our Rural Food program. Parishioners are encouraged to get the word out and encourage potential recipients to contact Juan Torres at Catholic Charities (707-293-3861) or Rod DeMartini, Rural Food Program Coordinator at roddemar@comcast.net

Young Catholic Adults are invited to attend Friday, Nov. 10th, from 6-8PM: "Faith, Hops & Love"- A Fun-rai$er Night to Benefit Fire Victims. This is an evening of friends, faith, food, and beer at Lagunitas Brewing in Petaluma. Tickets cost $12 (for ages 21-40ish).

For tickets and info, search online Santa Rosa Catholic Events.
